Whose Say-so Is Best?

With nearly all medicines put up for sale through druggists, one has to take the maker's say-so alone as to their curative value. Of course, such testimony is not that of a disinterested party and accordingly is not to be given the same credit as if written from disinterested motives. Dr. Pierce's medicines, however, form a single and therefore striking exception to this rule. Their claims to the confidence of invalids does not rest solely upon their makers' say-so or praise. Their ingredients are matters of public knowledge, being printed on each separate bottle wrapper. Thus invalid sufferers are taken into Dr. Pierce's full confidence. Scores of leading medical men have written enough to fill volumes in praise of the curative value of the several ingredients entering into these well-known medicines.

Amongst these writers we find such medical lights as Prof. Stanley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Medical College, Chicago; Prof. H. A. of the same city; Prof. John M. Sander, M. D., late of Cincinnati, Ohio; Prof. John King, M. D., late of Cincinnati, Ohio; Dr. Grover C. of New York; Dr. J. C. of Louisville, of Jefferson Medical College, of Pa., and scores of others equally eminent.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures the worst cases of female weakness, prostrates, nervousness and general debility, irregularities, cures painful periods, dries up disagreeable and weakening drains, soothes all other diseases peculiar to women. It is a medicine that is not a secret, but a prescription of a regularly educated physician, of large experience in the care of women's peculiar ailments, who frankly and confidently takes his patients into his full confidence by telling them just what his prescription is composed of. Of no other medicine put up for women's special maladies and sold through druggists, can it be said that the maker is not afraid to deal thus frankly, openly and honestly by letting every patient using the same know exactly what she is taking.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is guarded as strictly secret, and womanly confidences are protected by professional privacy. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

How to preserve health and beauty is told in Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. It is free. For a paper-covered copy send Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., 91 one-cent stamps to cover mailing only; in cloth binding 31 stamps. Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure constipation.

THE STRICKEN ROSE FROM GRIEF.

What a fortunate provision of nature it is, that deprives the rose of mental suffering; for how poignant would be its grief to discover, in the height of its blooming glory, that a canker fed at its heart, and that its beauty and fragrance were doomed forever. Nature always spares the suffering; she is a veritable store-house of pleasing rewards, for those who seek her aid. In the years ago, when suffering and grief have cast a gloom over the lives of thousands of young women, but thanks to the investigations of scientists the true cause of hair destruction is now known to be a germ or parasite that burrows into the hair follicles. Newbro's Herpicide absolutely destroys this germ, thus permitting the hair to grow as nature intended. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

MRS. THAW'S LIFE STORY.

Mrs. Evelyn Thaw recited every detail of her checkered life to her counsel in New York yesterday. The former actress and model told a tale of being drugged by Stanford White.

The attempt made in New York to create the impression that Harry Kendall Thaw had never known of the relations between Stanford White and Evelyn Nesbit before she became Mrs.

Thaw has caused much comment in Pittsburg, where it has been pretty well known that White was but one of many previous to the coming of Thaw.

From evidence that is apparently easy to obtain in Pittsburg, the New York authorities will, it is said, be able to prove that Harry Thaw was not only cognizant of the relations which had existed between Evelyn and White before he took up with her, but that other members of the Thaw family were also acquainted with the rather checkered career of Miss Nesbit before giving consent to the wedding of Harry with her. The assertion is made in Pittsburg that Evelyn Nesbit, before she was taken into the Thaw family as Harry's wife, was taken to task by Mrs. William Thaw, to whom she confessed all of her relations with Stanford White.

The girl said, it is asserted, that a certain Pittsburg woman had taken her to

New York and had introduced her to White, telling her (Evelyn) to "go along" with him; that he was a millionaire fond of young girls and beautiful girls, and that he would "make her" in the eyes of the artistic world.

It is alleged that Mrs. Thaw was so horrified that she could scarcely go on with the interview; that she demanded the name of the woman and it was given.

It was then too late to stop the wedding between Harry Thaw and Evelyn Nesbit at the price of yet more scandal, but

Mrs. Thaw, according to the story, made Evelyn promise her that after she became Mrs. Harry Thaw she would never again speak to or recognize the woman who, she said, had introduced her to White and others in New York. This Evelyn promised faithfully, and her friends in Pittsburg say she has kept that promise.

It was through the alleged boastful-ness of Evelyn that this feature of the Thaw-Nesbit alliance became known.

Some time after she became Mrs. Thaw,

SATURDAY EVENING, JUNE 30, 1906.

DISPATCHES from Russia show that serious conditions exist throughout most of that empire. While reports concerning the movements and intentions of the Czar are contradictory, the probability seems to be that he will not leave Russia, but will remain at Peterhof all summer. That is the most secure of his residences and the one most advantageously situated in case of any desperate emergency. Extraordinary precautions are being taken to assure his safety, and his mode of life will apparently be not very different from that of his father during some of the years of terror. That there is need of such precaution is only too clearly indicated, partly by the appalling list of assassinations of prominent men in Russia in the last year and partly by the undisputed reports of serious disaffection in the army, and in that very part of the army upon the loyalty of which the Czar has most confidently counted. When the Czar's own household regiment is found to be tainted with treason it certainly seems to be time for strenuous measures. Army disaffection should, of course, not be surprising news to those who have diligently followed the progress of affairs in Russia. Months ago we told in details in these columns the story of the revolutionist propaganda, which involved high officers as well as the rank and file of the Russian army. That account is now amply verified, and the army is seen to be as little trustworthy against domestic treason as it was ineffective against foreign foes. Such a state of affairs must surely give the Czar much food for thought. With the army loyal and effective it would be a grave thing to antagonize the Russian nation. With the army untrustworthy and in part actually turned against him such a conflict would seem to be madness.

The democrats have won some notable victories in Congress this year. They have beaten the Santo Domingo treaty, the bills for the construction of a ten million dollar battleship, for ship subsidy, and for forcing Arizona and New Mexico into joint statehood. They have forced the admission of Oklahoma and Indian Territory into the union, the bill depriving trust officials of immunity from punishment, the railroad rate bill, etc. The democrats have been beaten, however, on some very important measures, including the Tillman bill to prevent contributions by corporations to corruption funds, the bill to pay Mr. Roosevelt's circle-swinging expenses, the Bailey and La Follette amendments to the railroad rate bill, and the confirmation of Barnes.

THERE is a great difference in the appropriation that Congress makes to pay their mileage bill every session and the lump appropriation $25,000 to pay the traveling expenses of the President. A Congressman only receives pay for the double number of miles from his home to the national capital at 20 cents a mile. The President can expend his appropriation for traveling anywhere and can invite his friends to accompany him. He can use the appropriation for hunting trips, for swinging around the circle and presenting the republican side of political contentions and in fact there is no restriction on his use of the appropriation. What a good time congressmen would have with such an unrestricted fund to draw upon and what legions of friends they would have while it lasted?

ALREADY contracts for 755,000 tons of Bessemer steel rails and 195,000 tons of open heart steel rails for delivery next year have been signed. These two items amount to nearly a million tons, and the estimates of the unofficial contracts raise this amount sold for next year's delivery to 1,200,000 tons. This is not quite at the middle point in 1906, and these great sales so long in advance are remarkable evidence of the amount of reconstruction and improvement going on. Notwithstanding the fact that the rail mills are running to their utmost capacity the "stand patters" say they must be "protected" and that there must be no reduction in the tariff on steel.

THERE is trouble among the Massachusetts republicans. Members of that party in the legislature have been involved in charges of bribery; and one of them has confessed. He was promptly expelled, but he is still confessing. His name is Gethro, and he says: "I agreed to buy republican votes, got the contract and bought the votes." He also says: "I was expelled by a mob of dastardly hypocrites who had been offered and had taken ten bribes to my one." Some of these days Gethro will be pushing the beef trust and the Standard Oil. Look out, when a republican confesses.

DESPITE the protests of the humane societies throughout the country the President yesterday signed the bill permitting cattle to remain on trains thirty-six hours without unloading. The time heretofore has been twenty-eight hours. Imagine poor dumb, driven cattle being boxed up in cars for thirty-six hours at a time in such weather as this!

ONLY those with strong stomachs are eating the packers' products nowadays and when Chemist Wylie gets in his work under the pure food bill there will be little left but starvation for many after the vegetable and blackberry season is over.

From Washington.

(Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.)

Washington, June 30.

There is a movement on foot to make application to the President for a pardon for Senator Burton, of Kansas. It will not be pressed at this time, however, the Supreme Court will not act on Burton's motion for a rehearing until next October. Should the final decision in this matter go against him, an emissary will be sent by Burton's friends to Oyster Bay to intercede with the President and attempt to get a pardon before the mandate of the court can be carried into effect and thus save Burton from being sent to jail.

The President will remain at the Capitol until adjournment. He took luncheon with Senator Warren.

Before going to lunch the President signed, among other bills, the pure food bill, the Lake Erie & Ohio canal bill, and the agricultural appropriation bill, the latter containing the meat inspection amendment. The public building bill has not yet been engrossed. It will be signed later in the day before adjournment.

This morning Mrs. Ida Hopkins, 42 years old, living at 1509 Gale street, attempted suicide by inhaling illuminating gas. She was taken to the hospital, where it is believed that she will recover.

President Roosevelt went to the Capitol at 11:35 this morning for the purpose of signing the river and harbor committee bill. He was seated in a white linen suit and Panama hat. He established himself in the President's room just back of the Senate Chamber and at once began the work of turning bills into laws.

Representative Burton of Ohio, chairman of the river and harbor committee of the House, was at the next session Congress will pass a river and harbor bill carrying nearly $77,000,000. "The general policy to be adopted," he says, "should be not to take up projects of improvements until the ones already begun have been completed."

The bill, which will become a law, carries these items that have been in dispute between the Senate and House, but upon which an agreement has been reached: Lynchburg, Va., $80,000; Portsmouth, Va., $69,000; Clinton Forge, Va., $40,000; Fredericksburg, Va., $40,000. Among the items which are in dispute was that of Richmond, Va., $200,000.

Disaffection in Czar's Regiment.

The crushing blow inflicted on the Emperor Nicholas by the discovery of disaffection in his favorite regiment, the Preobrazhensky Regiment of Life Guards, as shown by its adoption of resolutions recently upholding all the actions of parliament and announcing that the men wanted no more police duty entailing the slaying of brothers or fathers, has so affected his majesty that he has ordered the name of the disloyal First Battalion to be stricken from the roll of the Imperial Guards.

According to reliable information the Czar announced that the Preobrazhensky Regiment before the imperial palace, and in a sarcastic address expressed his regret of the evidence of their disloyalty in declaring sympathy with the radical programme of parliament. He concluded by saying that he never would wear the uniform of the regiment.

In addition, the soldiers and officers of the special rights enjoyed by guardsmen, and hereafter the battalion will be designated the "Special Infantry Battalion."

The general staff no longer conceals its fear that the morale of the entire army is profoundly shaken and that with parliament championing the cause of the mutineers in each instance as it arises the first big test may find troops lined up as the French guards did two days before the Bastille fell, on the side of the people and against the monarchy.

One of the advocates of repression said yesterday that it would be necessary to strike hard and immediately, or otherwise within a fortnight the world would probably see the proclamation of republics at Kharkov, Saratov, Rostov and elsewhere. The whole south of Russia, the speaker said, is belching forth anarchy and revolution, and parliament, as a "hindrance to the work of pacification," must be dissolved at once. "The troops however, must not—cannot—be employed against the mutineers," he added, "the functionary, admitting that this was the limit to the loyalty of the soldiery."

Circus Tent Struck by Storm.

Two men were killed and several persons, including three women, were severely injured in Aurora, Ill., yesterday afternoon, when the large show tent of the Ringling Brothers' circus, in which was an audience of nearly 15,000 persons, composed for the most part of women and children, was blown to the ground in a miniature tornado which swept over the city at 2:35 o'clock in the afternoon.

It was just as the performing troupe of forty elephants, headed by their keepers, marched into the three rings that the black funnel-shaped cloud, which had been hovering over the city, swooped down upon the tent. The top of the tent bulged out, and with a whizzing sound the wind entered the tent, tearing down the side walls. Then the big center pole bent nearly double, and with a crack, parted two feet from the top of the tent. In an instant the canvas dropped, enveloping men, women and children in its folds, and the panic which had already started increased a hundred-fold.

Mathew Bury, of Aurora, a helpless cripple, was struck on the head by a falling tent pole and instantly killed. The other man who was killed was Mathew Cress, of Geneva, who died of heart disease about a hundred feet from the dismantled tent.

Conviction Sustained.

Philadelphia, June 30.—The Superior Court yesterday handed down a decision sustaining the conviction of John A. Miller in the court of quarter sessions of Schuylkill county. One conviction is for soliciting and receiving as school director a bribe of $15. In the other the conviction is for being corruptly and unlawfully interested in furnishing supplies to the school of Pottsville.

News of the Day.

Reports to the American Library Association show that Andrew Carnegie's gifts to libraries in the United States last year numbered 211, amounting to over $3,000,000.

Rev. Dr. Judson Smith, one of the most prominent figures in the Congregational Church in this country, died last night at his home in Roxbury, Mass.; after a long illness. Death was due to a general decline.

Struck by lightning as he was standing under a tree near Ransom, Pa., yesterday morning, Chas. Geary was instantly killed and every stitch of his clothing except his shoes was stripped from his body. Henry Renner, a mine worker, was struck and killed by lightning about the same time near Stockton.

Plans for the protection of property and life in the District of Columbia on the Fourth of July, made by Maj. Sylvester, chief of police, and Chief Bell, of the fire department, have been approved by the commissioners. The observance of Independence Day will be marked by the absence of loud or dangerous explosives or fireworks.

Charles W. MacWhorter, assistant cashier in the Washington postoffice, is locked up, a confessed embezzler of $10,000 of the post office money. MacWhorter was arrested at the instance of Postmaster John A. Merritt, to whom a confession was made in the office of the prisoner's attorney, W. H. Robeson, in the Bond building. Love of the races, it is said, caused his downfall.

J. F. Wright, of Lancaster, Pa., vice president of the eastern division of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers of the United States, yesterday issued an order to the various lodges in his division declaring a strike of ironworkers, to take effect July 1. The order affects all the iron mills east of the Allegheny mountains and in the New England States, employing 5,000 men. At a wage conference of the eastern division held in Reading on June 9 it was decided to demand an increase of 50 cents a ton for puddlers and a proportionate increase for finishers. Vice President Wright's order is the result of the unanimous refusal of the millowners to meet the demand.

Reception to the Longworths.

The Society of American Women gave a luncheon to Ambassador Reid and Mrs. Reid and Mr. and Mrs. Longworth at the Hotel Cecil, in London, yesterday. The large banquet hall of the hotel was filled with the American guests, and their guests, who included, besides the Reids and the Longworths, Lord Roberts, the Duke and Duchess of Marlborough and Lord Curzon of Kedleston, the former viceroy of India.

The Duke of Marlborough, in proposing the health of Mr. and Mrs. Longworth, spoke of the interest Englishmen took in the political utterances of President Roosevelt and in his great political career, saying that the President's high aims, courage and manliness commanded the admiration, good will and enthusiasm of the British. Recognizing the President's great qualities, the British had gladly welcomed his daughter, and now that they had met her, they regretted her early departure, and hoped she would retain for England the kindly feeling and interest which England would retain for her.

Mr. Longworth replied, thanking the American ladies for their courtesy and expressing the pleasure experienced by himself and his wife at the kindness they had met with on every hand. Lord Curzon, speaking for the guests, said it had been a great pleasure for them to meet the daughter of the greatest statesman of the day, not only because she was the daughter of herself, President Roosevelt, he added, was making an enduring mark on the history of his time but, above all, the British had to thank him for cementing the good relations existing between the two peoples.

Mrs. Reid and Mrs. Longworth afterwards attended a reception of the Lyceum Ladies Club.

The Hot Wave.

Nine deaths and half a hundred heat prostrations were recorded yesterday in Chicago as a result of the second day of boiling heat. In the stockyards district there were many prostrations and deaths. Men fell from wagons and street cars. On the streets there were scores of prostrations, and many other persons were seriously affected. Men fell as they walked the streets or stood in the shade. Children of tender age were reported to the health department as ill in large numbers, and several deaths of infants have been reported.

The temperature in Philadelphia was within three degrees of the June record for that city, which was established June 20, 1899, when the thermometer reached 98 degrees. The highest temperature yesterday was 95 degrees at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon and the day was the hottest of the season. Thermometers on the street touched 98. Numerous cases of heat prostration were reported by the hospitals.

At 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon the thermometer at the Weather Bureau in Washington registered 94 degrees, where the mercury remained for over two hours.

Mrs. Tanner Killed.

Mrs. James Tanner, wife of the Commander-in-Chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, was killed yesterday afternoon in an automobile accident at Helena, Mont. Corporal Tanner and his wife arrived at Helena, yesterday morning, the former being on a visit of inspection to the Montana department of the Grand Army.

Yesterday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Tanner, Mrs. J. K. Toole, wife of Governor Toole, and Gen. Lee Wilson, of Bozeman, made up an automobile party to visit points near Helena. On the way to Fort Harrison, while going at a fairly swift pace along a narrow road, the chauffeur turned out to make room for a freight wagon. The road was so narrow that the automobile ran off the edge of the embankment, turned over and threw the occupants out. Mrs. Tanner struck the ground first; Mrs. Toole and General Wilson fell on top of her. Mrs. Tanner, unconscious, was taken immediately to a hospital, dying just as she reached there. The other members of the party were not seriously hurt. Mrs. Tanner was over 60 years of age.

In the Hastings Court of Richmond yesterday Cliff Well petitioned Judge Witt to issue a writ of mandamus against the commissioner of revenue compelling him to allow Well to operate a slot machine for the sale of cigars. Judge Witt refused to issue the writ, on the ground that such a machine is illegal.

CONGRESSIONAL.

Congress virtually completed its work yesterday all except one item of the public building bill.

Great strides were made yesterday in the way of compromise in the various conferences, but the signature of the President has to be attached to the last of the vital reform or appropriation measures before actual adjournment can be had. Both the House and the Senate agreed to the third, or final, conference report on the rate bill. The Senate agreed to the conference report on this measure yesterday afternoon after an interesting debate. The new free pass amendment was adopted and the pipe line amendment was approved in the form in which it was recently described. The measure went to the President and was signed late last night.

Both houses also agreed upon the conference report upon the pure food bill yesterday afternoon. This measure also goes to the President for his signature. The misbranding provision, which was amended in the House to meet the wishes of the canners of Maryland and other States, was not altered in conference.

The conference on the meat-inspection amendment, which was the only portion of the agricultural appropriation bill in dispute between the two houses, held their final session yesterday afternoon and reached an agreement under which the House won its contention that the government should pay the cost of inspection and also the contention that the meat labels should not be dated.

Shortly before 6 o'clock the agreement of the meat inspection conference was laid before the Senate and adopted. Its adoption was accomplished without the necessity of a roll call. Senator Nelson declared that the bill had been shaped in the interest of the packers and the range-cattle men.

The appropriations made by this Congress amount to $900,000,000. The following are among the most important bills passed: Panama lock canal, meat inspection, pure food, railroad rates, admitting Oklahoma and Indian Territory as a State, and removing tax on denaturation bill.

Among the bills that failed of passage were: Philippine tariff, admission of Arizona and New Mexico as a State, immigration bill, federal control of insurance, ship subsidy bill, Santo Domingo treaty, ratifying of Smoot.

Scene in the House.

On the floor of the House last night Representative Southwick, of New York, made a statement which Mr. Baile of Georgia, construed as tantamount to calling him a liar.

Mr. Southwick persisted in interrupting Mr. Bartlett, who was objecting to the consideration of a resolution increasing the pay of three tally clerks and in the disturbance that followed the Georgian drew from his pocket, or had in his hand at the moment, a small silver pocketknife, drawing his arm back at the same time and thrusting himself from the New York member, who appeared to be advancing upon him.

The House was immediately thrown into confusion. The speaker banged repeatedly for order, and directed members to take their seats. This served no purpose, and the sergeant-at-arms was directed to see that order was restored.

Meanwhile, the friends of both parties interfered. Mr. Bartlett took his seat and Mr. Southwick was led to another part of the chamber, and no arrests were made, nor was it necessary to take from its perch the silver knife, which is the emblem of the majesty and the power of the House of Representatives.

"There has been too much lying about this resolution," Mr. Southwick had said. This observation caused the trouble, although the New York member disclaimed any personal allusion to Mr. Bartlett.

Thaw in Prison.

New York, June 30.—When Harry K. Thaw was marched back to the Tombs yesterday after pleading not guilty to the indictment charging him with murder in the first degree in killing Stanford White, it probably closed the last visit the young millionaire will have outside the prison in many a day. There are now no more formalities to be gone through which require that Thaw shall be taken.

The statement made yesterday by Mrs. Thaw to Judge Olcott is the thing which has given the most impetus to the shaping of the defense. For four hours the young woman was closeted with the attorney and in that time she related all the details of her former life freely, explained the relations she had maintained with White and told of all the annoyances to which she had been subjected by the dead architect following her marriage.

New York, June 30.—For the first time since Thaw's imprisonment, the immediate reason for the shooting has been made known. Counsel for the defense are now in possession of this vitally important incident. It is said that White remarked in the presence of two men and a café attaché: "There's the little Nesh—!" His other remarks were too vile to print.

The Hot Wave.

New York, June 30.—New York is sweltering in a terrific heat wave. The Weather Bureau says it is the hottest June 30 since 1901. Several deaths and heat prostrations are reported by the police. During the night, whole families from the tenement district in Manhattan and Brooklyn who had suffered in their coop-like houses, fled to Coney Island and nearby beaches in the hope of securing a breath of cool air. At daybreak the police at Coney Island were watching over the forms of thousands of sleepers of the two boroughs who had fled from their homes. The park commissioners in the various boroughs will probably issue orders today permitting citizens to remain in the parks all night without molestation. Six persons were reported dead from the heat up to 11 o'clock this morning. Four of the dead were children. Thousands of the East Siders, seeking relief from the heat, stormed the bath houses as early as five o'clock this morning. The police reserves had to be called out to restore order.

The Czar and His Army.

St. Petersburg, June 30.—It is stated that the Czar a short time ago ordered General Treppoff, formerly Governor General of St. Petersburg, and Assistant Minister of the Interior, to prepare a full report on the disaffection of the troops together with recommendations how to keep the soldiers loyal. Treppoff, it is reported, told the Czar that most of the officers, particularly of the Cossack regiments, are loyal, but he cannot rely on the rank and file unless their lot is improved by better food and by ordering the officers to treat the men with more consideration. General Treppoff also advised the Czar to make a few examples of obscure officers for bad treatment of the men by transferring them to undesirable posts. The Czar is now considering measures for improving the lot of the soldiers.

Launch of a Battleship.

Camden, N. J., June 30.—Precisely at ten minutes of eight o'clock this morning the battleship of the Hampshire slid from the ways of the New York Ship Building Company. As the mighty mass of steel began to move Miss Hazel McLane, daughter of the Governor of the Granite State, sent a bottle of champagne crashing against the prow of the vessel. A thousand cheers went up from the launching platform and the wharves below. From a mechanical standpoint, the launching was the most successful of the many which have taken place at the yard. Two workmen were slightly injured. This was the only incident to mar the otherwise perfect launching.

Bride Killed by Lightning.

Vienna, June 30.—A story from Klats, Austria, which says that lightning struck the bride of the day as the happy young people were just leaving the church. The bride, Josephine Januet, was instantly killed and the bridegroom was seriously hurt.

Utica, N. Y., June 30.—The Delaware, Lackawanna & Western train leaves here at 12:30 is reported wrecked at Chadwick. A relief train has just left here. No one was killed outright, but fifty persons were injured.

Overdue Steamer.

New York, June 30.—Maritime circles feel much anxiety over the disappearance of the steamer America, which is over due eight days at this port. The America left Marseilles on June 3, with four cabin, and 110 steerage passengers.

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. The cause of ten cases is caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Fifty-ninth Congress.

Washington, June 30.

Notwithstanding an eleven hour session yesterday, that ended at midnight, the Senate met at 10 o'clock this morning with two dozen Senators in their seats when prayers were said. It was for the last pull that was to bring a final adjournment.

A resolution providing for a naval review at the Tampa, Fla., celebration of the beginning of work on the Panama canal in the first five months of 1908, was agreed to.

"I heartily endorse this project," exclaimed Mr. Flint, "for at the next session I shall introduce a resolution calling upon the government to join with the city of Los Angeles in a celebration in 1915 of the completion of the Panama canal." (Laughter.)

Mr. Hansbrough met defeat in an effort to get action on the bill authorizing the construction of a railroad and telegraph line in Alaska.

He had the measure as it just passed the House, laid before the Senate, but on motion of Mr. Nelson, it was referred to the committee on territories, where it will sleep until next session.

The desire of some Senators to have an investigation of the five civilized tribes in Indian Territory then came to grief.

A viva voce defeated the resolution.

At 10:30 news reached the Senators that an agreement on the public building bill had been reached, and that the report would soon be before the Senators.

Mr. Scott expressed deep regret that the Senate conference had to recede from the great $3,000,000 department building project, for the departments of State and Justice, and Commerce and Labor.

Mr. McComber was excused from further service on the committee on manufactures. He said he had remained on the committee for four years, in order to secure pure food legislation. "Inasmuch as such will soon be a law, I have no desire for further service therein," he explained.

Mr. Bailey, after a conference with Mr. Clark, author of the resolution, announced the withdrawal of his objection to the resolution for the making of an inquiry into the affairs of the five civilized tribes and, upon his request, the resolution, which was previously defeated, was adopted.

Mr. Culberson submitted his usual figures on governmental receipts and expenditures. He gave figures to prove his contention that the first four years of the Roosevelt administration exceeded in expenditures the four years of the McKinley administration by over $436,000,000 although the latter carried the Spanish-American war expenditures.

Mr. LaFollette presented a request for unanimous consent that his bill fixing the limit of working hours for railway employees be taken up on the second Monday in December, and voted on December 12.

During the debate, which finally ended in unanimous consent being refused on objection of Mr. McComber, Mr. Gallinger protested against what he considered to be reflections cast by the Senator from Wisconsin on his attitude toward labor.

"I want to repudiate any intimation that I am hostile to labor organizations," he declared.

Mr. La Follette said he had made no such charge. "What I said referred to the Senator's attitude toward railway employees," he tartly retorted.

At 11:25 a. m., the galleries were cleared and the doors closed for executive business. The doors were thrown open five minutes later.

Mr. Beveridge got unanimous consent that a vote would be taken on the La Follette railway employment bill January 10, at three p. m.

The Dick resolution, declaring that the Isle of Pines is American territory and providing for its government, but the President, went over with the announcement by Mr. Dick, that he would call it up for consideration December 5.

The Vice President appointed Senators Clark (W.), Long, Brandegee, Teller and Clark (Mont.), as the special committee to investigate the affairs of the five civilized tribes.

At 11:55 a. m., a recess of fifteen minutes was taken. "The public building bill report would be ready by that time," announced Mr. Hale.

The Vice President's gavel fell promptly at 12:05 p. m. The public building bill was not ready. To fill in the time several private bills were passed.

At 12:25 p. m. The doors reopened. Mr. Scott cheered the languishing spirits by declaring that the public building bill was safe but being held back.

12:30 p. m. Another bill discovered. The engrossing clerk of the House overlooked the striking from the sundry civil bill of the appropriation of three million for the new department building, which was later stricken from the public building bill. A joint resolution was passed to rectify the error.

12:35 p. m. A recess of fifteen minutes taken. Mr. Warren announcing that the public building bill is still being held by the House.

1:40 p. m.—The Senate agreed to the conference report on the public building bill. With the signature of the President it becomes a law.

At 1:30 p. m. a message from the House

The Jackson-Phillips Brick Co. Report.

There was filed in the Circuit Court for the City today by E. B. Taylor, commissioner in chancery, his report in the suit of John P. Agnew & Co. against the Jackson-Phillips Brick Company, which covered upwards of 100 pages of typewriting. This suit was instituted in January last by the plaintiffs to prevent the sale of the plant of the Jackson-Phillips Brick Company under a deed of trust, and in February last after R. H. Cox recently had under the direction of the court taken charge of the plant, all the matters in dispute involving the Jackson-Phillips Brick Company were consolidated and referred by Judge Nicol to E. B. Taylor, commissioner in chancery, to investigate and report upon to the court. The questions of law and matters in issue were numerous, as can be judged from the fact that the record in the suit, depositions of witnesses, exhibits filed, books and bonds of the company and the claims and conditions, made probable the largest and most involved in a suit in this city, being upwards of 8,000 pages in all, and required a large wooden box to hold it and a wagon to convey the same to the court house from the office of Mr. Taylor. The matters involved amount to upwards of $100,000 and Judge Nicol will shortly hear in this city arguments upon the report filed. The plaintiffs and minority stockholders are represented by Col. F. L. Smith and James R. and H. B. Catton, and the company and the bondholders and majority stockholders by Norton & Bothe and Malcolm Huffy, of Washington, D. C.

Torrid Weather.

Yesterday was the hottest day of the season, and the temperature throughout last night was sultry and many people were unable to sleep by reason of the torrid conditions. Throughout the day a brisk breeze from the northwest prevailed, but it was by no means refreshing, and the mercury was well up into the nineties by noon. At the close of the day the wind subsided entirely when the discomfort increased. The day was cloudless with no indication whatever of a change in the weather. People were driven from their homes to the streets and to the pavements in front of their homes, where they piled fans until nearly midnight, sleep in many cases was impossible. Occasionally a mild zephyr from the north would be felt but its effect was temporary and tended rather toward tantalizing sweltering humanity. Children toiled and fretted, while their elders made efforts to afford them relief. The torrid weather has been in evidence again today.

United States Jurors.

The following is a list of the petit jurors summoned to appear before the United States Court in this city, for the term beginning July 5th:

Jesse Murray, Geo. F. Simpson, Henry Person, Richard Gibson, T. F. Johnson, Warren Sullivan, Joe M. Goldsmith, A. M. Garner, R. E. Maddox, Robt. L. Smith, W. H. Sadle, Edward Lee Kid, Wm. Woodward, Rudolph Rogers, Lewis H. Irving, F. C. W. Green, C. H. Sanford, W. A. Jamieson, E. S. Rollins, Dr. Richard Biddog, W. Ryland Butten, G. D. Shirley, Rosey Whaling and G. W. Jamieson.

Equine Instinct.

A horse attached to Mr. C. O. Pullman's wagon yesterday evening attracted attention of a number of persons at the intersection of Wolfe and Patrick streets. Just as the wagon turned the corner a little child about three years old started to cross the street in front of the horse and was knocked down by it. The animal seemed to realize instantly what it had done, and rearing upon its hind legs, jumped completely over the prostrate child. When the latter was picked up it was found to be uninjured.

Luna Park.

A large crowd of people sought refuge from the heat last night at Luna Park. Among the visitors were the members of the Baptist Sunday school of this city with many of their friends. All the attractions of the popular resort were in full blast and the patrons experienced a delightful evening.

Home-Slaughtered Cattle.

Since the recent expose of conditions in western meat packing houses many people have been loth to eat meat slaughtered or packed without the city. It has been known for some time that most of that exposed for sale in the Alexandria shambles comes from the west where cattle are taken from trains and slain while their blood is heated, thus impairing their value as food. The methods employed in packing and shipping the carcasses are now well-known, and the army of vegetarians has been reinforced considerably by the disclosures. There are, however, some butchers who still adhere to old-time procedure. This was exemplified yesterday by a representative of the Gazette who visited Mr. Oscar F. Baggett's slaughter house in the extreme southwestern portion of the city. The cattle purchased by Mr. Baggett are generally procured from nearby grazing farmers, and before being slaughtered are turned into a rich pasture where water is plentiful. They are kept within the enclosure until they reach a condition for market and when the flesh is served there is nothing to which exception can be taken. The ice house and cold storage contrivances meet all requirements. Ice is packed in an apartment adjoining the vaults in which the meat hangs, and a current of cold air flows continuously upon beef sides, slaughtered calves, &c. The temperature in the lower vault is kept at 40°, that in the upper at about 50°. The meat is allowed to hang until in a condition to be sent to market. A drove of fine beef cattle and sheep from Fauquier county was received by Mr. Baggett this morning. They were driven through several streets of the city and were generally admired for their fine appearance.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Catton presiding.] The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Johnson Hutchinson, colored, arrested by Officer Nicholson for disorderly conduct, was fined $5.

James Edwards, arrested by Officers Beach and Garvey for assaulting Julia Cheeks, was fined $5.

Manlie Beal, arrested by Officers Beach and Garvey for a similar offense, was sent to jail for 60 days.

Ellie Kerner and Alton Carter, arrested by the same officers also charged with stealing bottles, were dismissed.

John Shepherd and Waverly Lucas, arrested by Officers Bell and Garvey charged with assaulting Summerfield Brooks with bricks, had their case continued. Brooks being unable to appear. The assault occurred in the neighborhood of the Old Dominion Glass Works. Brooks, it is said, was stunned by bricks thrown by his assailant and this evening was thought to be in a precarious condition.

Lina Stewart, arrested by Officers Roberly and Young charged with assaulting Mary Lee, was fined $5. The woman was fined a like amount for disorderly conduct.

Death of Mrs. Kell.

Mrs. Mary Kell, widow of Isaac Kell, died at the residence of Mr. E. H. O'Brien at 430 Cameron street at an early hour this morning. The deceased had recently been paralyzed. She leaves three children—Mr. L. H. Kell, Mrs. E. H. O'Brien and Mrs. James E. Alexander. Mrs. Kell was one of the oldest residents of this city, being nearly 88 years old. She was universally esteemed for her many sterling qualities by a large circle of friends and acquaintances. Mrs. Kell was born in Alabama.

While attempting to shoot his 15-year-old daughter, who three months ago eloped with Joseph Withe, Rafael Marciano, of Hazelton, Pa., was himself shot and killed, while his daughter is in the hospital with a bullet in her head and is in a precarious condition. The tragedy occurred at Hazelton at midnight Thursday night. Marciano never forgave his daughter or her husband, and, having brooded much over their elopement, it is believed that he went to their home Thursday night with the intention of killing both. He reached there at midnight, calling his daughter to the door and shot her as soon as she appeared. Before he could fire again Withe sprang upon him, and after a struggle succeeded in wresting the revolver from him and shot him through the head, killing him instantly. Withe gave himself up and is in jail awaiting the action of the district attorney.

New Books for Summer Reading

"The District Attorney,"

BY WILLIAM SAGE.

A strong, timely, skilfully written novel of present day political and financial life in which a son of high ideals is arrayed against his father, the head of a powerful combine.

"Woman's Wit,"

What a girl's wit, sharpened by American education and backed by western independence, can accomplish in the field against powerful conspirators for whom the stake is a throne and the lives of men are mere pawns, is the theme of this story. By her cleverness, resource and courage she makes her way through a succession of adventures as startling as they are novel and mysterious.

"The Builders,"

BY WILLIE G. EMERSON.

A thrilling story of Western life. The discovery of a gold mine is the central theme, and about the heroine who assists in the discovery, is woven a beautiful story of love's conquest.

"The Race of Life,"

BY GUY BOOTHBY.

A vigorous story of the Australian bush told with all the wealth of Guy Boothby's picturesque and exciting language.

"Susan Clegg and Her Neighbor's Affairs,"

BY ANNIE WARNER.

The intangible Susan Clegg and her neighbors, including Mrs. Lathrop, are even more irresistible in these new stories than in the first series, which gave the author a reputation as the highest rank among American writers and humorists. This new volume includes a four-part story, "The Wolf at Susan's Door," and a two-part story, "Mrs. Lathrop's Love Affairs."

SATURDAY EVENING, JUNE 30, 1906.

Taken Out and Hanged.

A dispatch from Cairo, Egypt, says that as a result of the sentences imposed by the court which recently tried the natives concerned in the attack June 13 on a party of British officers who were pigeon shooting at the village of Demshawal, near Tanta, four natives were hanged at Demshawal yesterday and five were flogged.

The prisoners, in carts, left Shibinel-kom guarded by infantry, the galleys and whipping post following. When the cavalcade arrived at Demshawal Captain Macbell, adviser to the Egyptian Minister of the Interior, selected a spot close to the road and hoped to a spot measuring 80 by 30 yards, in the center of which the galleys and whipping post were erected.

At 1:30 p. m. one of the prisoners was hanged, and the body was left hanging while two of the condemned natives were whipped. Then another man was hanged, and two more were whipped, and then in turn two more men were hanged and the fifth man was whipped, each of these receiving 50 lashes with the cat. A guard of soldiers surrounded the inclosure, and hundreds of natives stood in a wide circle two hundred yards distant. The women wailed dementally as the lash was applied and when the culprits were hanged, all the condemned men were calm, but the blows of the cat caused groans and cries.

Boy Died in Tool Chest.

Little "Jimmie" McCallum, 6 years old, after playing with his spade in the backyard of his grandfather's home in New York, rummaged among some old boxes and barrels in a corner of the yard. Finally he pulled out a big tool chest that was empty. It was just big enough for a little playhouse. The boy climbed inside and sat down.

In moving about he shook the box and the lid fell. The hap dropped over the staple and when "Jimmie" tried to raise the lid he found it was tied, but could not, and after a while he was stifled.

"Jimmie" was not missed for two hours. Then his grandma started to search for him. He was not in the house and she went to his parents' home, thinking he had gone there. The neighborhood was finally alerted, and finally, quite by accident, lifted the lid of the tool chest. There she found "Jimmie" dead.

The child had been dead only a few minutes, and although a doctor from Roosevelt Hospital worked over him for an hour it was in vain.

Killed by a Violent Bull.

A telegram was received at Westminster, Md., yesterday, by Dr. Daniel F. Shipley, informing him that his brother, John Bernard Shipley, a farmer near Ashland, Va., had been killed by a bull.

Mr. Shipley was engaged in farming near Westminster until a few years ago, when he purchased and removed to a farm near Ashland.

Raymond, 16 years old, son of Mr. Gresham, tenant on the farm of Westley Wash, near Westminster, was badly gored by a bull a day or two ago. The animal attacked him viciously and would have killed him outright but for the assistance of an elder brother, who, at great personal peril, went to his relief and succeeded in beating off the infuriated animal. The youth, however, was severely, and it was at first thought fatally injured.

A Miraculous Cure.

The following statement, by H. M. Adams and wife, Honolule, Pa., will interest patients and others. "A miraculous cure has taken place in our home. Our child had asthma 5 years and was pronounced incurable, when we read about Electric Bitters, and concluded to try it. Before the second bottle was all taken we noticed a change for the better, and after taking 7 bottles he was completely cured." It's the up-to-date blood medicine and body building tonic. Guarantied. See and Buy at E. S. Leadbeater & Son's drug store.

Wants Immediate Action.

A conference was held at the White House Thursday afternoon in which Attorney-General Moody, Assistant Attorney-General Purdy and Messrs. Kellogg and Morrison, special counsel, in the case connected with the investigation of Standard Oil affairs, participated with the President. The anti-trust phase of the question was under consideration.

In reference to the other phase of the question—whether there has been any violation of the Interstate Commerce act by the Standard Oil Company—the general District Attorneys summoned to Washington by Mr. Moody will be guided in their actions by existing conditions. It was said they understood that the Department of Justice wants immediate action, and they will either call special grand juries or file information, whichever course they decide to be most expeditious.

You cannot induce a lower animal to eat heartily when not feeling well. A sick dog starves himself, and the stomach is once overworked, must have rest the same as your feet or eyes. You don't have to starve to rest your stomach. KODOL FOR PEPSIA takes up the work for your stomach, digests what you eat and gives it rest. Put it back in condition again. You can't feel good with disordered stomach. Try Kodol. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE

What Herpicide Does

Newbro's Herpicide destroys the tiny vegetable growth in the scalp that causes dandruff, itching scalp, falling hair and baldness. Once this microscopic enemy of the hair is destroyed, and kept out of the scalp, the hair is bound to grow as nature intended, except in cases of chronic baldness.

WHAT SUNLIGHT DOES.

Sunlight is nature's greatest germ destroyer and prophylactic. The effect of sunlight upon the scalp proves highly beneficial, if a complete plan of scalp cleanliness is carried out. This cannot be done without the use of Herpicide, which prevents reinfection and keeps the scalp pure and wholesome.

More men and women have gotten positive results from the use of Newbro's Herpicide than from all other hair remedies combined.

HOT WEATHER TROUBLES.

The perspiration that exudes in increased quantities during the summer months carries out poison and refuse matter that would otherwise clog up the pores of the scalp.

Incomplete elimination of this waste produces a hot and feverish condition of the sweat glands known as Prickly Heat for which Herpicide gives immediate relief. Herpicide stops itching of the scalp almost instantly.

Col. Thomp Burdon, Member of the Board of Managers of the Ohio Penitentiary, writes as follows of Newbro's Herpicide:

"As to Herpicide I find it an excellent hair dressing as well as being the first and only absolute dandruff cure I have found. My friends are using Herpicide, and the unanimous verdict, is that Herpicide is, in all respects, everything that its manufacturers claim for it."
